ISTITUTO
ITALIANO
DI
FOTOGRAFIA

IIF IN ENGLISH is an International department of the Italian Institute of Photography and offers photography courses in English. The department recognizes the importance of both 'global' and 'local' and has developed its philosophy, programs and partnerships based on this dual concept.

Istituto Italiano di Fotografia is a multifunctional school, a highly innovative and experimental space. It is discovery, research, and expression.

The school was born aiming to provide a solid preparation, the development of sensitivity, a contemporary photographic language able to cross cultures, frontiers, and markets. It is continuously in search of talent. It is a never-ending will to let yourself be seduced, to astonish, to amaze, to be touched and reached by an image.

It is an opportunity to discover a new language and to wise up to new horizons and it divides into:

SCHOOL

Complete and modern preparation since 1993 and offers day courses, evening courses, topic sessions, workshops and courses in English language through IIF in English, an International department

ART Side

Exhibitions, project books, performance and meetings promoted by IIF.

PRODUCTION

A photographic agency specialized in the production of images for institutional or product communication to promote the photographer's personal style.

COURSE

2019
2020

Istituto di Moda Burgo was founded in Milan in 1961, by publisher Fernando Burgo, who is the school's director still today. It was formed with the objective of combining his passion for fashion with the idea of creating a college that would become a point of reference in the sector.

The objectives of the Istituto di Moda Burgo are:

To provide a training in specific areas of fashion, such as Styling, Pattern Making and Fashion Design, imparting all-round skills and preparing professionals capable of competing at an international level.

The development of an effective, specific teaching method in order to optimize its students' knowledge and learning.

To establish an extensive network, with partnerships between Istituto di Moda Burgo and other Institutes all over the world

Techniques and tools

Highly qualified teachers, specialists in their fields, constantly updated, and in close contact with the world fashion system.

Innovative, simple, and periodically updated teaching techniques, individual lessons

Advanced technical course material and textbooks, a fundamental source of reference for both beginners and experts in the field.

“INDIVIDUALITY”: this is our key word. Our founder developed a teaching method designed to enhance each student's individual capabilities. The carefully-planned programmes include all the specialist areas of fashion. Lessons are based on individual tuition (except for theory classes) which enables our students to learn quickly and optimize their time.
